I think it would be a good thing and if I make it fun too they might.
Let m think how I can do this. Thanks.

If you're board members are willing to attend, then yes, it would be beneficial. You would simply post it as a special meeting of the Board.

Good afternoon Rita,

Thanks for stopining by this morning to pick up the paperwork. Attached is the signed City of Los Angeles Request for waiver - Worker's Comensation Insurance Requirements form for your files.

Also I was thinking on another note if I can put together a LFVBID Board Member "Retreat" of sorts where you can discuss how and why we operate the way we are supposed to but at the same tije make it a fun event for the Board Members. I'm not sure if BID's have ever done such a thing but as a former board member on LFIA we had a mandatory retreat every year. It was beneficial. Any thoughts?
